SCHEDULE A

1. Each and every document (as defined by Mass. R. Crim. P. 14, including, without limitation, correspondence, notes and memoranda) in your possession, custody or control which evidences, substantiates, refers or relates in any way to the scientific methods of analysis employed at the William A. Hinton State Laboratory Institute for the identification of controlled substances including any and all protocols for the handling of evidence samples.
2. Each and every document (as defined by Mass. R. Crim. P. 14, including, without limitation, correspondence, notes and memoranda) in your possession, custody or control which evidences, substantiates, refers or relates in any way to the personnel file of chemist Annie Dookhan, including but not limited to recent personnel actions taken by the Department with respect to Ms. Dookhan's employment.
3. Each and every document (as defined by Mass. R. Crim. P. 14, including, without limitation, correspondence, notes and memoranda) in your possession, custody or control which evidences, substantiates, refers or relates in any way to the investigation of a breach of protocol at the William A. Hinton State Laboratory Institute discovered in June, 2011 and as disclosed in a letter from Linda Han to Norfolk District Attorney Michael W. Morrissey, dated February 21, 2012.
